

7 DAY CRUISE

EXPERIENCED SAILORS ONLY

NORTHERN CYCLADES

⊕ Day 1-

Leave Athens and sail to Kea Island. Kea Island is a mountainous island. The yacht will berth in the town of Voukrai on the northern tip. The main town is up in the hills. One of the attractions to this island is probably the best fish restaurant in Greece. Katerina's Fish Taverna has been in business for over 60 years. The house specialty is Lobster with fresh home made Pasta.

Sailing time 6-7 hours (40 miles)

⊕ Day 2-

Leaving Kea around mid morning a short sail to Kithonos Island and the port of Loutra . Here the small village has volcanic pools of hot springs a visit to the ancient baths in Loutra is most refreshing, followed by a swim and dive off the rocks around the village.

Sailing time 3 hours (18 miles)

⊕ Day 3-

As a general rule the yacht will leave each port around mid morning todays sail to Siros Island and the town of Finakas is likely to be a quick blast reach., Siros is an all catholic island in the middle of a Greek orthodox kingdom. Visit the main town of Ermopouli and have a feel of the conflict between these religions.

Sailing time 3/4 hours (30 Miles)

⊕ Day 4-

To day we have a choice, you can sail south to Serifos island and enjoy the delights of this mountainous island or Sail to Southern tip of Kithonos Island to the secluded bay of St.Nicholas anchor out on anchor and enjoy a Yacht side bar b que.

Sailing time 4-5 hours (25-35 Miles)

⊕ Day 5-

Sail from Kithonos/Serifos to Poros Island . This will be an ocean type passage where you will lose site of land, there is no stopping here . The departure from Serifos will be early so that we can arrive in good time in the early evening. The passage is an RYA and ASA ocean qualifying trip.

8 hours (60 Miles)

⊕ Day 6-

Here in Poros you can either rest and explore the island or we can continue to Epidavros and see the ancient theater. The sail to Epidavros will be about 3 hours and about 20 miles.

⊕ Day 7-

Return to Athens from Poros or Epidavros. It will take 4 hours to sail from either place. Distance (35 Miles)

This is meant as a guide to the best way to spend 7 days cruising around the Western and Central Cyclades. This is for experienced sailor who like long ocean style trips and enjoy getting into port at night. One should expect to sail around 230-250 miles in the 7 days, bearing in mind the rest days on some of the islands.
